

Before you enter the foreign exchange and stock markets, you have to remember that trading currencies and other investment products are trading in nature and always involve considerable risk. As a result of various financial fluctuations, you may not only significantly increase your capital, but also lose it completely.

Therefore, our clients have to assure PURE FX, Inc. that they understand all the possible consequences of such risks, they know all the specifics, rules and regulations governing the use of investment products, including corporate events, resulting in the change of underlying assets. The client understands that there are special risks and features that affect prices, exchange rates, and investment products. Trading foreign currencies can be a challenging and potentially profitable opportunity for investors. However, before deciding to participate in the Forex market, you should carefully consider your investment objectives, level of experience, and risk appetite. Most importantly, do not invest money you cannot afford to lose.

These risks include a decrease in liquidity, price change, high volatility and circumstances beyond control. Before you open an account with us, make sure to study in detail the user agreement, as well as the basic principles and rules of the financial markets.

PURE FX, Inc., is NOT providing investment advice as all trade opportunity alerts are delivered to all participants uniformly without regard to an individual's trade objectives, financial condition, or suitability. Unless a user has selected customized alert options privately on their own account to further analyze their own trades. These options are at the full discretion of the user and are not controlled by PURE FX, Inc.

PURE FX, Inc. is not responsible for losses due to use or non-use of the products purchased. The trading is fully under the customer's control. PURE FX, Inc. is not liable for any damages that occurred as a result of government restrictions, regulations of foreign exchange or stock markets, military actions, suspension of trading and other circumstances beyond control.
